EA was served at Woman's Club yesterday afternoon from 5 to 7, as usual, the charming weather bringing a large num-ber of callers to the club pariors.

Club hostesses for the afternoon,
Mrs. James Alston Cabell, Mrs. William Mende Clark, Mrs. P. L. Conquest and Mrs. Chiles Ferrell, did the honors delightfully, and many out-oftown guests were entertained.

Mrs. Mines Returned.

Mrs. Benjamin Milnes and daughters have returned to Richmond after some months of absence, and are located at
No. 507 West Grace Street for the winter.

Friends of Miss Rosalie Milnes, one of the most popular society girls in the city, will regret to hear that she is ill with malarial fever at Virginia Hospital.

She was taken sick in Lynchburg, and it was decided that her removal to Richmond was advisable. So she arrived on Sunday, accompanied by her brother-in-law and a physician, and went at once to the hospital. It is hoped that she will soon be convalescent.

Valentine Mothers' Club.

Valentine Mothers' Club.

The first meeting of the year of the Valentine Mothers' Club was held Thursday afternoon, October 15th, at the club rooms. A large and enthusiastic number of ladies was present. The election of officers took place, and the ballots showed the following results: President, Mrs. M. H. Asher; First Vice-President, Mrs. E. L. Linday; Second Vice-President, Mrs. J. P. Tompkins; Third Vice-President, Mrs. E. R. Fuller; Treasurer, Mrs. Sam Bendheim; Recording Secretary, Mrs. L. M. Hirschfield; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Rene Leon de Milhau; Librarian, Miss Denny.

A very pleasing incident was the election by unanimous vote of two honorsry life presidents, Mrs. Howard Whitlock and Mrs. E. L. Lindsay. The third Tuesday of each month was selected as the day of the regular meetings.

Kaufman-Rosenbaum.

Kaufman—Rosenbaum.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kaufman, 520 North Fifth Street, was the scene of a pretty marriage on the evening of October 17th, at 620 o'clock, when their daughter. Nettle, became the bride of Mr. Louis Rosenbaum, of Youngstown, Ohio, the Rev. E. N. Calisch officiating. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white sik mull and carried a bouquet of Bride Foses. Owing to the extreme illness of the groom's mother, the wedding, which was to have taken place at a later date, was hastened, and was witnessed only by relatives.

The bride is a sister of Professor J. N. Kaufman, of this city, and is a very popular young lady. She will be greatly missed by her numerous friends, Mr. Rosenbaum is a business man of Youngstown. The young couple left for Youngstown, their future home, immediately after the ceremony.

Jackson—Yancey.

The wedding of Miss Anna May Yanney, of Mecklenburg, to Mr. William H. Jackson, of this city, took place in the parlor of the Rev. Mr. Guthe, pastor of St. John's German Lutheran Church, Wednesday morning at 110 clock. Mr. Jackson is a prominent young man of the East End, his bride being also a popular young lady of that section of the city. They are at present residing at 1819 Venable Street.

SUPERINTENDENT REPLIES

Declares Crabtree Is Suffering with Recurrent Mania, Which Caused Him to Write.

RALEIGH, N. C., October 19.—Replying to charges made by George W. Crabtree, through the Industrial News, of Greensboro, that the management of the State Hospital for the Insane here is guilty of brutal and inhuman treatment of patients, unsanitary and uncleanly conditions, tack of clean and nourishing food, and utter indifference to proper discipline, Dr. James McKee, superintendent in charge, declares that Crabtree suffers recurrent mania, and that he is evidently passing into one of these insane periods now, having been repeatedly treated in the asylum here and in California. In fact, that he escaped from the Raleigh asylum in one of his convalescent periods, taking advantage of liberties allowed convalescents. Such types of patients, he claims, when improving, are the worse types of scandalmongers.

An Unusual Sale of Suits, Coats and Ready-to-Wear Apparel

We have got SUIT AND COAT news that is going to set the town talking. We are positive that every woman who is thinking of buying will read it with interest. Here's the story:

A New York manufacturer of Suits and Coats wired us two weeks ago if we could use about 750 Suits and Coats at a special discount on a cash basis. We wired an offer, which was accepted. They all go on sale for this week's selling.

We own them for less money than Suits and Coats have been sold for this season, and have arranged for a sale that will totally eclipse all previous occasions. You will note that we are not claiming to sell these SUITS AND COATS at half price, or a third off. The savings average hardly more than 25 per cent., but these are ACTUAL SAVINGS, and that's remarkable, considering the present market conditions and the fact that every garment is thoroughly well made, amply full, and the styles are exceptionally good.

219 West Broad Street. Edward W. Ball

My Dear Sir.—On behalf of the committee on arrangements of the Taft meeting last night, I desire to thank you for the splendld way in which you handled the decoration of the hall. A prominent member of the Taft party said to me last night that the house was the prettiest decorated of any he had seen anywhere throughout the country. This artistic arrangement was really a material factor in the success of the meeting, and I thank you for the manner in which you did the work.

Yery truly yours,
